And Fifty Negroes in the Coast Line
Shops go on Strike.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WILLINGTON, N. C., April 2—Because a negro currsed one of the workmen in the Atlantic Coast Line shops here, over two hundred fellow-workmen simost mobbed him to-day at the noon bour, when all the men knocked off for dinner. The negro, whose name is Frank Sanders, was badly pounded by the indigenant white men for a fow minutes, and his cries for help and mercy were pathetic. He was badly beaten, but no very serious injury resulted. He was frightened aimost to death.

Sanders, with fifty other negroes, is employed about the shops to do heavy work. As a result of the trouble boday the entire force of negroes walked out and refused to work this afternoon, Just what the outcome will be is not known, but the Coast Line management started an investigation this afternoon, and will probe the matter to the bottom.

It is rumored that trouble between the two races has been brewing for some time, and the negro's insolence this morning was only the spark that set it off. Several hundred white men are employed in the shops here, and they stand about as a unit on the question. It is bolieved the trouble will be brought to an amicable settlement, and that the half a hundred negroes will return to work without a recurrence of any outbreak.

The first Syrian priest that ever visited this town was present with his people this week, Mr. Nemtella. He administered the hely communion and preached. Several Gentiles were present, but could set understand the sermon, which was delivered in Arabic. They are zealous Christians, and their creed is similar to that of the Greek and Catholic churches.

Complaints made by sundry parties sgainst Mr. J. R. Moore, representing the industrial Aid Association, Atlanta, Ga., led to his arrest. On being arraigned before the Mayor it was proven the company had compiled with the law and license had been paid, but the company had neglected, unintentionally, to provide a county soliciting certificate. The Mayor dismissed the case on the payment of loosts.

UNIVERITY BLIL.

The Senate passed the bill to allow the creation of an executive head for the University of Virginia, and to fix the terms of the Corporation Courts of Radford and Bristol.

There were two interesting measures offered in the Senate. One was by Mr. Gold to require the closing of salcone on primary as well as general election days, and the other was by Mr. Harman to regulate the sale of oplum and other drugs. The latter amends the law so as to restrict the sale of oplum, morphine, cocaine and kindred drugs by regularly licensed physicians and druggists, and prohibits their sale except upon prescription.

By Mr. Sebrelli To provide for the protection of fish in Virginia.

By Mr. Cardwell: To repeal an act approved February 21, 1817, entitled an act incorporating a commany to establish a turnpike road from the city of Richmond crossing Chickahominy river between Meadow and New Bridges, until it intersects in Swamp road on the north side of said river.

Meadow and New Bridges, until it intersoots in Swamp road on the north side of said river.

When the general insurance bill came us, Mr. Churchman moved to dispense with its reading and to have it printed. This motion prevailed and the House proceeded to the consideration of, its calendar.

When the general revenue bill came up on a report from the Finance Committee, rejecting all the Senate Committee, report be adopted as did not relate to the Mann liquor amendment. Mr. Davis moved that so much of the committee's report be adopted as did not relate to the Mann liquor amendment. The also moved that this part of the report be rejected by the House, and that the Mann bill be adopted by the House. He also moved that this part of the principles of the bill, which he said he believed was demanded by the people, who had overwheimned the Legislature with petitions. He had no criticism upon the prospective conference committee, but he wanted an expression of the House, and did not believe so important a matter should be left, entirely to a conference committee. Mr. Davis' speech was a strong one and he was replied to warmly by Mr. Folkes, who declared that the House should proceed on the old conservative lines.

The House voted to pass by until today after Mr. Davis had stated that a substitute for the Mann bill was being prepared.

HOSPITAL BILL

The advocates of the Mann bill took this action as something of a victory, though this was not concede by its opponents. The House agreed to the Senate amendments to the bill creating the office of Commissioner of State Hospitals and defining his powers and duties and regulating the conduct of these institutions. The bill leaves the salaries of the State Hospital Superintendents as fixed by the House originally, which are as follows: Eastern $2.000, Western $2.350, Central $2.500, Southwestern $1,300.

The Edmonson good roads measure, which was amended so as to embrace some of the features of the Lessiter-Murrell bill was ordered to its engressment, which means its passage to-day.

One of the most interesting and important bills engrossed by the House, was that by Mr. Caton, of Alexandria, for the protection of wholesale merchants, against the fraudulent sale in bulk of stocks of goods purchased by retail merchants.

JAMESTOWN BILL.

JAMESTOWN BILL.

JAMESTOWN BILL,

At 12 o'clock Mr. Cumming called the special order which was the Jamestown appropriation bill and the question recurred upon his motion to reconsider the vote by which the House refused to pass the measure some days ago. The hall was packed almost to suffocation, and around the reilling was a perfect flutter of white ribbon pinned upon the advocates of the measure. Captain Cardwell was the first speaker and he vigorously opposed the motion to reconsider, contending that while he favored the enterprise, yet he did not think the State should be asked to finance it. If the bill was passed, appropriations to State institutions would have to be cut down.

Mr. Boaz, chairman of the House Finance Committee, made a strong speech against the bill and again contended ably that the State sould not afford the appropriation.

against the Sil and again contended appropriation.

Mr. Boaz grew rather peppery in his remarks at times and ridiculed the idea that those in charge of the bill had allotted him five minutes in which to speak. He declared that if the bill should pass, no other appropriations, not already made, could possibly be made, as there would be no funds available.

Air. Cumming, having charge of the bill, spoke earnestly for its passage and contended that from every point of view the State could afford the appropriation and he spoke of the public clamor coming up from the mountains to the seashore in favor of the bill.

Mr. Cumming made a stirring appeal for the bill and was asked a number of questions, which he answered with characteristic ability and when he had concluded Mr. Christian moved the pending question.

guestions, which he answered with characteristic ability and when he had conducted Mr. Christian moved the pending question.

It recurred on the motion to reconlised and upon roll call it was adopted. A SWEEPING VICTORY.

The announcement of the vote threw the great audience into a perfect spasm of shouting and applause and it was some moments before the Speaker with the victorus rapping of his gavel could suppress it.

This was practically a test vote upon the passage of the bill and the next roll call was largely formal, there having been but few changes.

Pending the roll call upon its passage, Mr. Sipe made a brief, but vigorous speach in explanation of his negative vote in which he contended that the bill was clearly unconstitutional.

The pending question was then ordered upon the passage of the bill and upon this the roll call resulted an follows:

CORBETT-JEFFRIES

BOUT IN AUGUST

BAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—The Tose-mite Club, of this city, has been awarded the heavy-weight championship battle between James J. Corbett and James J. Jeffries in a competitive bidding affair that hardly developed a contest. The bout will be held the latter part of August, and the club will either guarantee the fighters $20,000 in cash or allow them to take 70 per cent. of the gross receipts, but not both. On or before May 15th the principals will make the selection and arrange such other details as may suggest themselves in the meantime.

IRVING BACHELLER'S NEW STORY. IRVING BACHELLER'S NEW STORY.
The popular author of "Eben Holden" has written a new story that will add greatly to his fame. It is called "Darrel of the Blessed Isles," and is of thrilling interest. The Times-Dispatch has, in conjunction with the New York Herald, secured the right to print this wonderful story, and it will appear in our Easter edition of Sunday next. Don't miss reading it.
